WHAT HAPPENED THIS WEEK

The Temple chapter of PERIOD, an advocacy group that aims to combat period poverty and expand menstrual product access nationwide hosted Temple's Period Action Day on October 21st. Our very own Director of Basic Needs, Halle Howard was one of the student speakers for this event. They raised over $294 and collected 1,509 menstrual products, all of which will be donated to Philadelphia organizations such as The Spot Period Club and more.

On Thursday October 26th, TSG hosted our first TSG Fest, in our efforts to better engage and strengthen our relationship with the student body. We discussed with a variety of students, enjoyed some great music, and had some sweet treats! Reach out to our Chief Internal Services Officer Alayzha McDougal, if you have any questions about this event.
